The graphic features a light blue map of Asia with white grid lines. To the right of the map is a vertical list of five circular icons, each with a corresponding text label: a power tower for 'Smart Grids', a bar chart for 'Forecasting & Analytics', a computer monitor for 'Digital Tools & Solutions', a wind turbine and solar panel for 'Renewable Energy', and three people for 'Inclusive & Just Transition'. Below the map, five circular icons represent the flags of Nepal, Philippines, Pakistan, Indonesia, and Thailand. The bottom right corner shows a stylized cityscape with wind turbines and solar panels.
